

INFLUENCE OF INTEGRATION WITH EU ON POLISH REGIONAL POLICY

Summary

The author indicates an increasing role of regional policy in Poland after EU enlargement as a way to economic growth.

Regional policy has significant impact to obtain sustainable economic development. The main aim of regional policy is to equalize chance in development and create possibilities for regions to become more competitive in EU.