

TOURISTIC PRODUCTS CREATION AS A CONDITION OF WALECKIE DISTRICT DEVELOPMENT

Summary

This paper is presented touristic products creation as a determinant of development. Authors are pointed out a touristic product as an area of action in aid of tourism development in provincial self-government as well as directions of tourism development in West Pomeranian province. In the last part of paper is presented touristic potential of waleckie district as well as conclusions concern the touristic product and offer creation of waleckie district.