

Elżbieta Załoga
Grzegorz Stepień

DETERMIANT FACTORS OF INTEGRATION IN TRANSPORT

In paper special attention has been paid to analyze development factors of integrated transport chain. The scope of the term integrated transport chain has contained conception for fulfilling global strategy of sustainable transport development, with assurance for high quality services and benefits for participants and users. Among many impact factors, the main focus has been put on transport infrastructure, management concepts and telecommunication systems and services as well.

Translated by Elżbieta Załoga