TRANSPORT ACCESSIBILITY OF SEAPORTS AS THE SHAPING FACTOR OF THEIR COMPETITIVE POSITION

Summary

The competitive conditions require from the seaports the active creation of its market position. In that situation, the important factor is the transport accessibility. It is simultaneously an element of the seaports hinterland. The presented analysis indicates on the most important aspects of the issue and illustrates the current situation of the Polish seaports accessibility. Moreover, the text refers to the influence of the ports authorities on the accessibility improvement.