THE TOURISTIC AMENITIES OF PODLASKIE VOIVODESHIP AS THE DEVELOPMENTAL POTENTIAL OF THE REGION

Summary

The touristic amenities play a decisive role in the formation of the geography of the touristic movement, they make possible the identification of localities and re-gions, they define their identity and picture. In first part of the article the author per-formed the literature review in the range of defining the notion of touristic amenities and he presented the author's classification of these values. In second part of the study, on the basis of own investigations, the most important natural and anthropogenical val-ues of Podlaskie Voivodeship were presented which constitute the basic potential in the development of tourism in the region.
