SELECTED STRUCTURAL RESOURCES OF TOURISTIC CAPACITY
(BASED ON THE COMMUNE OF DŁUGOLEKA EXAMPLE)

Summary

The study forms part of inquiries describing the usefulness of suburban areas of Wrocław to undertaking touristic activities by Wrocław tenants. It describes a state of preparation by neighbouring communes to reception of touristic movement. The conducted research and the inventory control of touristic development of the commune of Długoleka is one of investigative tasks, beside the stock taking and the rating of touristic, natural and cultural values. the communication accessibility as well as the assessment of functional supplies, which will serve to evaluation of the touristic capability of suburban communes and in effect to assessment of use-fulness the suburban areas to fulfilling needs as regards undertaking weekend recreation by inhabitants of large cities.

Translated by Mariusz Sołtysik