BUSINESS ACTIVITY IN FREIGHT TRANSPORT

Summary

Studies on business activity in freight transport in Poland have been made in Motor Transport Institute since 1997. The main objective of these studies is to obtain information about current situation in transport and short-time forecasts. The paper summarizes the results of survey studies (especially about financial situation of firms, the volume of cargo freight, investment, competition, barriers in transport market development etc.).