RAIL AND ROAD INFRASTRUCTURE IN POLAND IN THE PERIOD OF THE TRANSFORMATION

SUMMARY

The paper presents the characteristic of transport infrastructure in Poland in the period 1989 - 2008. In particular the analysis concerns on the rail and road infrastructure - two of the transport branches, which are of great importance in the transport system in Poland. The main goal of the paper is to analyse the changes in the transport infrastructure in selected transport modes in the 20 years of Polish transition period.

Translated by Marianna Kotorowska-Jelonek