EUROPEAN LOGISTICAL POLICY

SUMMARY

This article is intended for the foundations of the European logistical policy. It includes the circumstances, impact on transformations taking place in the EU transport, objectives and range of the logistical policy. The article indicates, moreover, the significance of standardization of loading operations, liberalization in formulation of the transport system and role of the inter-modal transport in creating of the European logistic policy.

Translated by Maciej Mindur