DEVELOPMENT OF SPA CITIES IN THE 19TH CENTURY OF THE PRE-PARTITION REPUBLIC AREA

SUMMARY

Article presents a review of 13 health resorts, which now are cities lying on territory, till its partitions by the end of XVIII century forming The Republic of Both Nations.

During a century of its quick development (1815-1914) six of those health resorts (Iwonicz, Krynica, Rabka, Szczawnica, Truskawiec, Zakopane) belonged to Austria, five (Busko,Ciechocinek, Druskieniki, Nałęczów, Połąga) belonged to Russia, two (Inowrocław, Sopot) to Prussia. In the mid-war period twelve of them stayed in Poland, only Połąga belonged to Lithuania. After the Second WW, ten of those health resorts stayed in Poland, two (Druskieniki and Połąga) in Lithuania, one (Truskawiec) in Ukraine.

Translated by Andrzej Piskozub