

FROM THE HISTORY OF SZCZECIN TRANSPORT SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS

Summary

Memories of professor Stanielewicz go back to the year 1946 - day of arise of Trade Academy in Poznań and later on - rise of its branch in Szczecin. Beginning of it was described as well as professors connections with this school. Professor describes breakaway and transformation of Szczecin's Academy to Szczecin Economic High School - its departments, structure and employees. The first postdoctoral degree acquired by professor Grzywacz was described and what is connected to that - dynamic development of scientific personnel of Transport Economics Institute. Information about raising Faculty of Management and Economics of Services after changing from Faculty of Transport and Connection.

Translated by Zuzanna Kłos