

MY MASTERS - PROFESSOR WALDEMAR GRZYWACZ AND PROFESSOR ELŻBIETA ZAŁOGA

Summary

In the paper an attempt to evaluate my development, in particular, scientific but also didactic and personality. Among many people that shaped my development, special attention deserve prof. W. Grzywacz - known and respected as a scientist, especially in the field of transport economics and prof. E. Załoga as a supervisor and head of department. Within the framework of scientific development can distinguish two stages. The first covers the years 1999-2006 research interests include the strategy, competition and competitiveness issues. In the later period (since 2006) research interests focused around the issues of transport accessibility.
