

PROFESSOR MARIAN MADEYSKI - THE INSPIRER AND FOUNDER OF SZCZECIN-WARSAW TRANSPORT ECONOMICS SCHOOL

Summary

Transport economics is a branch of economics developed in most universities dealing with economics. The inspirer and founder of this science was professor Marian Madeyski. The development of transport-related economic sciences is closely related to the life and scientific and research activity of professor Marian Madeyski. Within this activity two periods can be distinguished: the Szczecin period and the Warsaw period. The article presents the achievements of professor Marian Madeyski and his merits for the development of both scientific centres as well as his contribution into creating a scientific basis for the development of transportation system and its functioning in a modern economy.

Translated by Elżbieta Marciszewska