

BROADBAND COMMUNICATIONS IN THE EU ECONOMY RECOVERY PLANS

Summary

The paper presents the special role played by broadband communications in the European Union economy recovery and as development triggers in information society creation. Active state policy has been pointed out as important for implementation plans related to universal access to broadband communications services.

Translated by Franciszek Kamiński