

PROTECTION OF INTANGIBLE ASSETS IN COOPERATIVE NETWORKS

Summary

In cooperative networks firms appropriate value through bargaining over the economic benefits generated from successful execution of joint tasks and through internalizing the knowledge of partners. Consequently, acquisition and protection of knowledge are the key issues for collaborating parties. Taking into account the shortage of theoretical basis concerning protection of intellectual resources in networks, the paper presents an outline of this subject.

Translated by Marta Najda-Janoszka