THE FUNCTIONING OF THE PUBLIC INFORMATION BULLETIN

Summary

The author bases his considerations on research project conducted in April 2010 that examined Web sites of the Public Information Bulletin (PIB), administered by local governments in the Wielkopolska region. The research was aimed at answering the following questions:

1. Does the project of PIB support electronic communication between administration and citizens?
2. Does the project of PIB support services delivered by local administration?

Translated by Wojciech Fliegner