GAMBLING IN THE INTERNET IN THE LIGHT OF POLISH LAW

Summary

The article presents the phenomenon of gambling online as a special area of economic activity which is a subject at the selected state regulatory policy. It indicates, that European and Polish law heads towards the limitation of gambling organized on the Internet. What is more, paper describes the threats connected with the negative social and criminal aspects this kind of activity and Polish legal framework counteracting them, including penal, penal-administrative and penal-fiscal responsibility, having IT tools in prospect.

Translated by Mariusz Czyżak