THE IMPORTANCE OF INFORMATION IN THE CLUSTER DEVELOPMENT

Summary

In the paper the key role of information in the process of cluster structures development was considered. The information sources have been identified as well as information needs. There was underlined that the stability in partnership of these structures is dependent on communication improvement.

Translated by Boguslaw Bembenek