IDENTIFICATION OF KNOWLEDGE MANAGEMENT PROCESSES IN THE VIRTUAL ORGANIZATION

Summary

The virtual organization is a form of cooperation of subjects directed at achievement of mutual goal, in which the significant role is played by the area of knowledge management. In the article, in the introduction was briefly discussed the structure and functioning of virtual organization and the issue of knowledge management in such forms of business subjects cooperation as well. In the final part was presented author's concept of knowledge management processes together with short description of creating it activities.

Translated by Damian Dziembek