LOCAL GOVERNMENT AS A CHALLENGE FOR LOCAL DEVELOPMENT

Summary

The development of local government is supposed to enable local community the participation in wielding in order to meet the most important needs of citizens as well as to create the possibilities for socio-economic and financial development. Local communities are supposed to wield independently throughout familiarity of local politics, influencing it and shaping the mechanisms of local development. The rules of cooperation between local authorities, civil organizations and private investors should be stated in the atmosphere of common trust, honesty and transparency. The ideas of local government should, in turn, be supported by local communities. Common support and good atmosphere are crucial for strengthening bounds and creating local development.

Translated by Julia Wankiewicz